Foreword

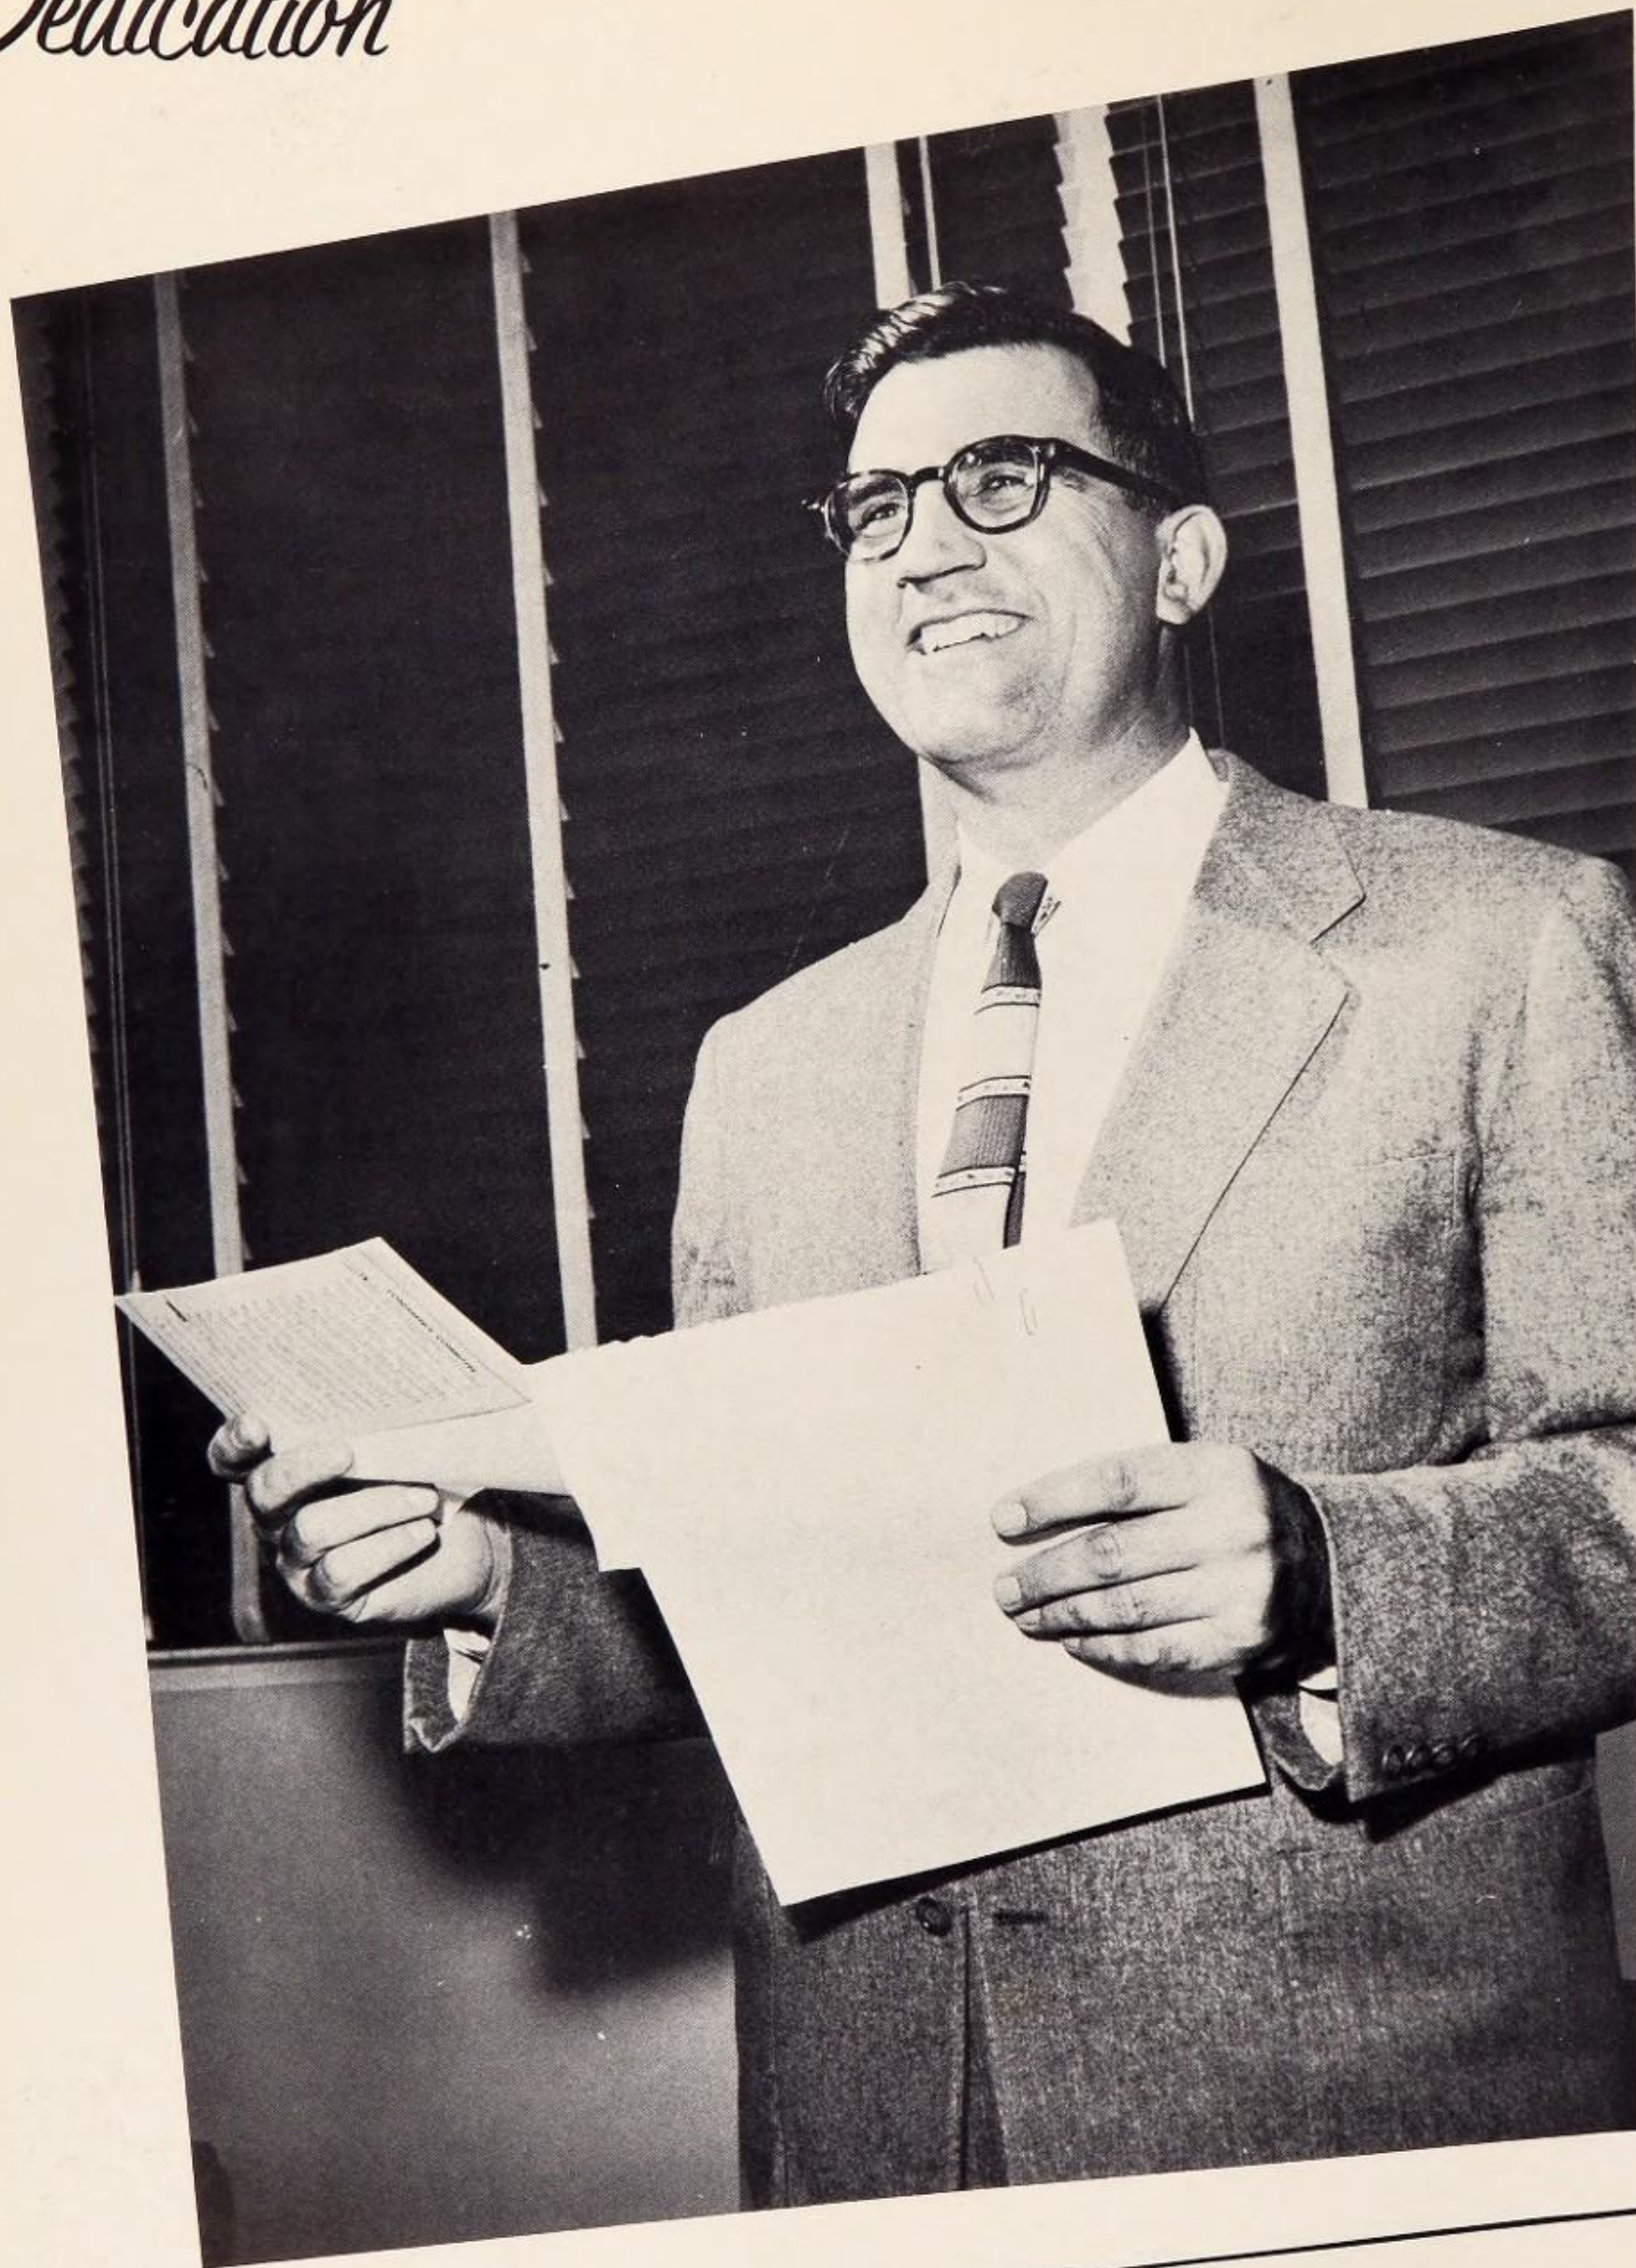

If one will look up the word "abstract" in Webster's dictionary, he will find the definition to be this: "A summary comprising the essence or principal parts of." That definition could very well apply to the Pantherama.

This year the Pantherama Staff made the decision of presenting to you a yearbook which would be in its entirety, a true representation of the modern and complex world that is ours today and its dynamic and challenging ideas. ABSTRACTIONS was selected as the theme for the 1957 Pantherama. Through the use of words and pictures the staff has endeavored to present the ABSTRACTIONS of our school life — the students, the faculty, the administration, and the year's varied activities, for these are the ABSTRACTIONS that make this structure a living spirit.

It is our sincere hope that you will cherish this, your 1957 yearbook, and that in the future you will experience enjoyment as you reminisce through the ABSTRACTIONS of your past school life.

Dedication

Our principal, Mr. Jack W. Salyers, to whom this yearbook is dedicated.

Pausing with Mr. Riassetto.

Taking time off for a hobby.

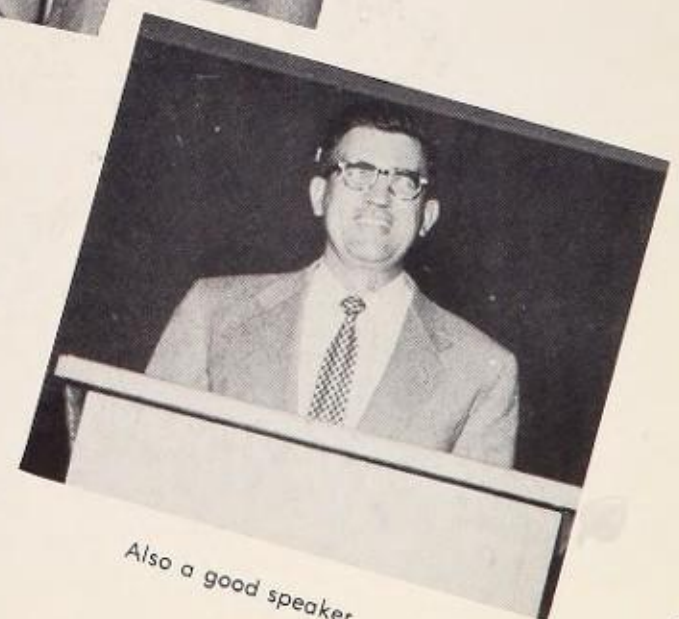

Important business.

Talking with students.

In your two years as principal, Mr. Salyers, you have shown interest and sincerity in the welfare of the students; you have actively participated in school activities and organizations; you have shown friendship and cooperation with the faculty and administration. For these and many more reasons, we dedicate this 1957 Pantherama of Abstractions to you.

Also a good speaker.

Momma,
 just remember when you are sliding down
 the banister just remember me as a sliver.

Love of Jack
 Larry Wolff

Activities

Good luck in the coming year.
 Charles Fendler

January

Signs, banners, and peppy students were parading around the campus of R.H.S. to elect their candidates for office. This campaign proved to be the most spirited of all past campaigns.

The spirit was so well accepted that the students continued by backing a pep rally with a round the campus parade for the El Monte game.

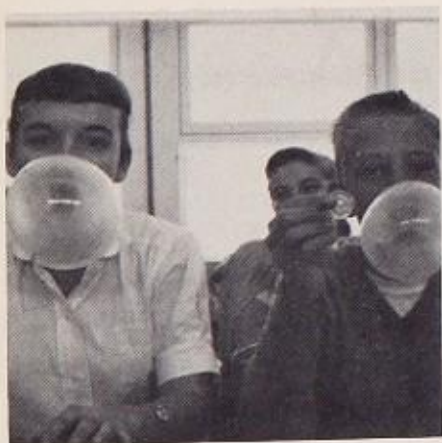

Students cast their votes.

Pep rally for El Monte game.

February

Chewing Bubble gum raises money for March of Dimes.

The annual "Cupid's Holiday Dance" sponsored by the Spinsters and Varsity Club was well enjoyed by all. This was also the month for the March of Dimes; it proved very successful for R.H.S. The Spartans keynoted the drive with a Dime Dance.

Carolanne Anderson and John Alegria were Cupid's Couple.

"All School Play" brought laughter to those who attended.

Mama -
 I wish you the very March best of luck in the future years of your life.

Elaine Cokley

The Sagaths and Pantheresses basketball game was a night of fun for all. The girls on both teams were suddenly showing their hidden talent. On the other hand the boys from the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes had a time staying on their donkeys while playing basketball at the Spartan - sponsored basketball game. Both teams fought to the finish.

Donkey basketball game where the upper class won in all cases.

Sagaths won, 17-15.

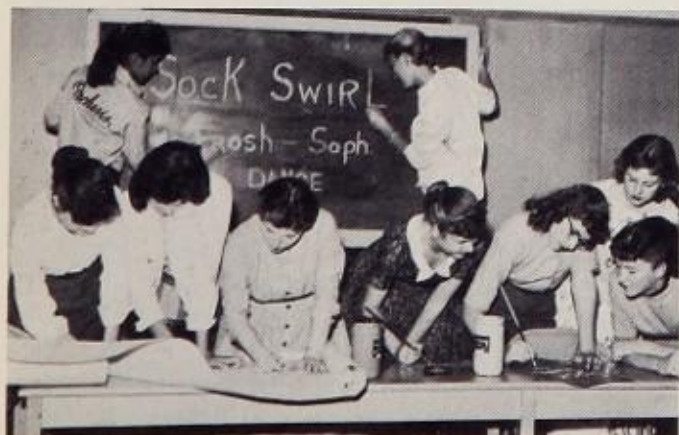

April

Students enjoy speakers on Career Day.

Starting April's activities was Career Day which was very successful as it was two years ago. The Freshmen and Sophomores held their annual dance this month which was a real treat for those who attended.

Wow! We reached the goal on the membership drive, so the P.T.A. gave us a spectacular assembly, with Art Lobe, the Four Preps, and the Dooley Sisters.

The Four Preps entertained along with the Dooley Sisters and Art Lobe at the PTA assembly.

May

Many activities occurred this month. The Annual Spring Sing was a beautiful show; and all who participated enjoyed themselves along with those who attended. Senior Class Night was a scream! Students were in the aisles with laughter and in their handkerchiefs with tears. This was the last show in which Seniors participated.

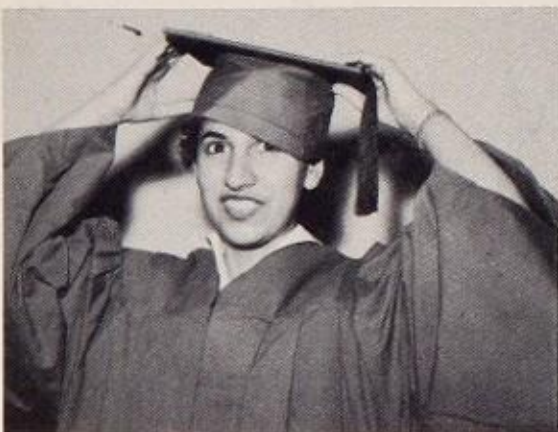

Many students participated in Spring Sing.

There was much talent in Senior Class Night?????

June

"Oh, this is too big."

"This is much better?????"

During the month of May the Seniors were practicing and participating in all senior events. They were marching and rehearsing the big event, "Graduation." The Junior-Senior Prom tonight will be a big event this year as usual. The juniors planned the affair. Then comes G-Day!

"This should look nice for the Prom."

Rosemead's First Pantherama Queen

Pantherama Queen

Princess Beverly Kalbfleisch

Princess Marilyn Klink

Princess Frances Matteroli

This year something new was tried — the choosing of a Pantherama Queen. Sixteen finalists had formal pictures taken by Watson Studios and were judged by members of the John Robert Powers Model Agency in Los Angeles. This contest was closed to senior girls only. The Staff would like to thank the Model Agency for its cooperation and we commend them for their excellent decision. Don't you think this is a marvelous selection?

Royalty

HOMECOMING QUEEN: In a traditional ceremony the Varsity football players selected a beautiful court, which consisted of Homecoming Queen Betty Fuller and her princesses. After the Homecoming game with Monrovia the Spartans sponsored the annual Homecoming Dance during which this beautiful court reigned.

The Homecoming princesses were Ardythe Smith, Dolly Briock, Anne Horner, and Monica Zema.

The Homecoming Queen this year was Betty Fuller, who was selected by the Varsity players.

WINTER BALL QUEEN: The sight of beautiful formals and gay laughter set the Christmas vacation off this year at RHS. The students were favored with the annual Winter Ball, sponsored by the Pantheresses and the Key Club. To top the evening off was the crowning of Queen Sally Vannoy.

The Winter Ball princesses were Monica Zema, Rhonda Washington, Mickey Watson, and Kay Kinnell.

Queen Sally Vannoy after crowning at the annual Winter Ball on December 14.

The San Gabriel Valley Princess: Kay Knudsen, Sue Tury, and Joan Hicks.

Sharin Hubbert, the Rose of the San Gabriel Valley.

For the first time we are able to present our Prom Queen in the Pantherama. The Prom, which is to be held tonight, will be one of the most beautiful ever put on by a Junior Class. Queen Elaine Hamilton and her beautiful court will reign.

Prom Queen, Elaine Hamilton.

Representing Rosemead at the County Fair this year was beautiful Sharin Hubbert, with the title of "The Rose of the San Gabriel Valley."

The Prom Princesses:
Janet Montgomery, Joyce Purkey, Mary Ann Evans and Joy Shaw.

Caught In A Villian's Web

"Egad, foiled again," were the words of villain Cyril Botheringwell as the very fair Felicity Fair was saved by handsome and brave Malvern Larkfield.

This was the somewhat familiar plot of the 2nd Annual "Meller-drayma" presented by the Royal and National Thespians.

Frank Hedrick played the role of Cyril Botheringwell who possessed many villainous qualities.

The sweet and naive Felicity Fair was portrayed well by Diane Saul. And "Our Hero," Malvern Larkfield, was played by Barry McCluskey. Mrs. Regina Larkfield, scheming mother of Malvern, was played by Joan Klingman.

Others in the cast were Pam Grimshaw, Jim McElroy, Bobbette Griffin, Judy Jackson, Pat O'Toole, and Joan Hicks.

The student director was Harriette Elkins and her assistant was Connie Ensign.

Drama

John Alegria and Barbara Krall.

Bob Mackie and Marianne Wolford.

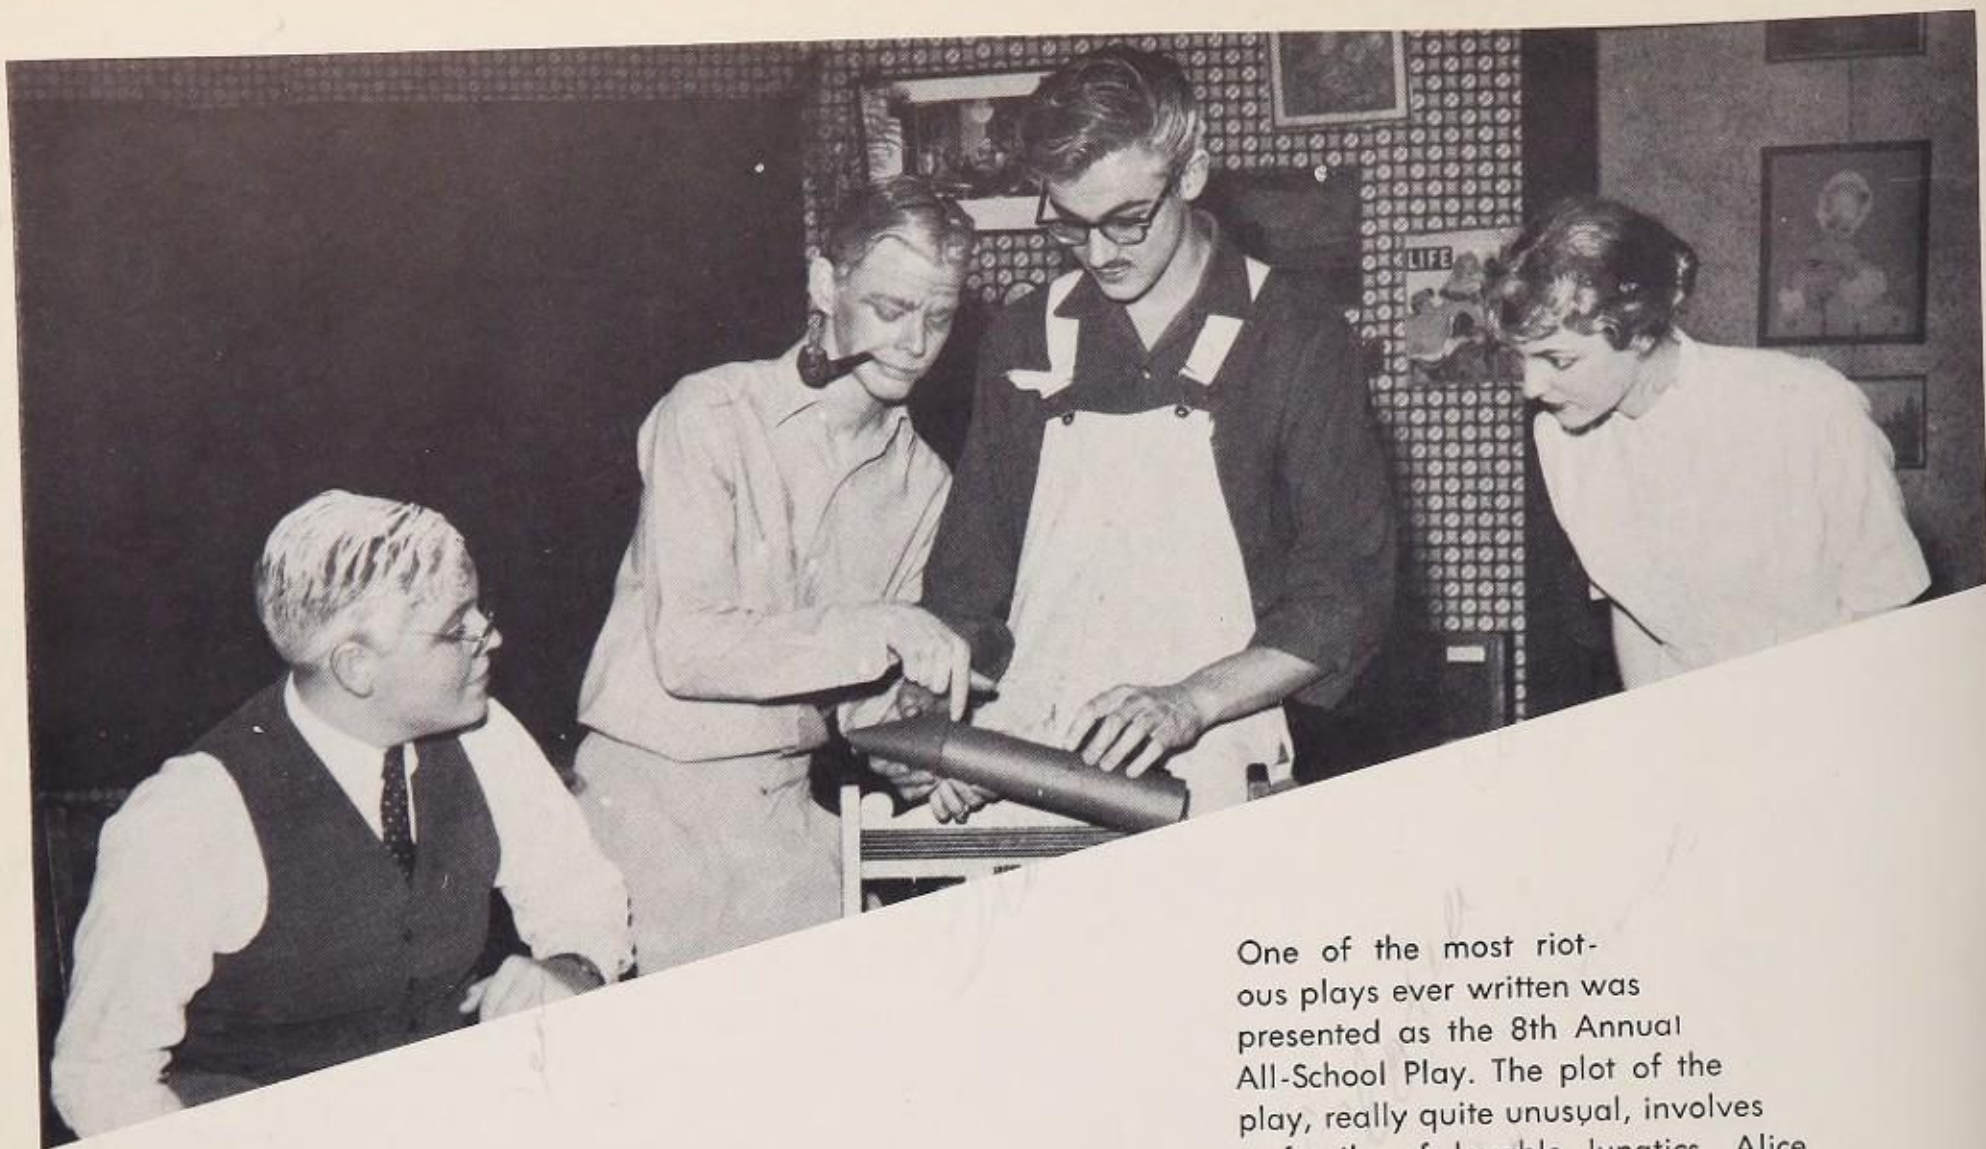

Dennis Frazier and Sandra Mallory.

Anything Goes

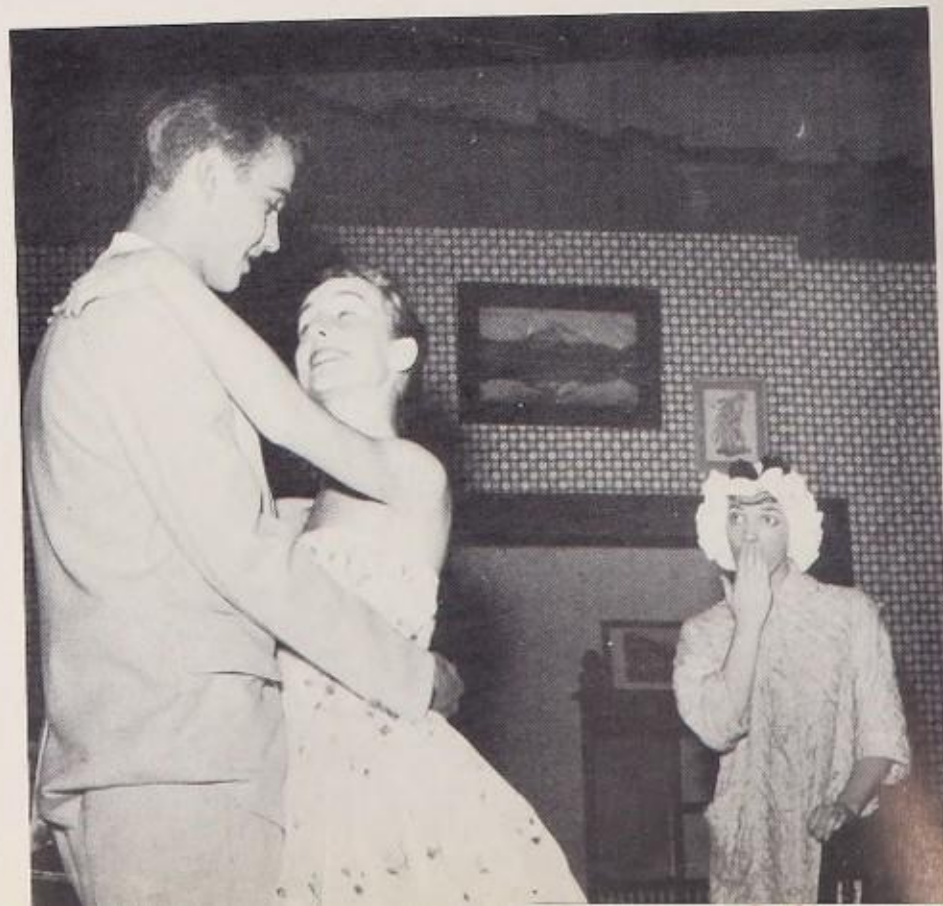

"Anything Goes," a musical comedy, was enjoyed by everyone. Marianne Wolford played the part of Reno, an evangelist. Bob Mackie played the part of play-boy Billy Crocker. Johnny Alegria played the part of Moonface Martin, "Public Enemy No. 13," who was afraid of his own shadow. Sandra Mallory played the part of Hope Harcourt, who was sailing to England to be married to an Englishman. Dennis Frazier tipped the tea cups as Sir Evelyn Oakleigh. Barbara Krall played the care-free girl friend of Moon, Bonnie La Tour. Supporting players were Barbara Horton, Eileen Wicks, Cecile Wiseman, Connie Ensign, Melba Gregston, Joan Hicks, Richard Cianfrocca, Patrick O'Toole, Richard Kendall, Jim Bebieu, Evan Hazelton, Lee Van Valkenburg, Jim McElroy, Barry McCluskey, Steve Levi, and Ronnie Garkow.

You Can't Take It With You

One of the most riotous plays ever written was presented as the 8th Annual All-School Play. The plot of the play, really quite unusual, involves a family of lovable lunatics. Alice and Tony, two normal human beings who are in love, try to overcome the obstacles of this very different family. Leading the wonderful cast were Joan Hicks, Pat O'Toole, Sue Reeder, and Jack Dooley. Other players were Rosi Toscano, Frank Hedrick, Lee VanValkenburg, Barry McClusky, Bobbette Griffin, Dennis Frazier, Bob Mackie, AnnaMay Blake, Bob Vander Heyden, Barbara Horton, Evan Hazelton, Ronn Rogers, and Joe Saitta. Mr. Ernest Mauk, who did a terrific job as faculty advisor, was assisted by directors Judy Jackson and JoAnne Scoville.

The trophy was won by Orchesis, under the direction of Sue Reeder and Ardythe Smith, holding trophy.

Gloria Lueras received a trophy for the best curtain act.

"AS IT 'TWERE" was the theme of this year's Variety Show. Under the direction of Barbara Horton and Barbara Jiminez, the '56 show proved to be one of the most outstanding in the history of the school. The first place trophy was won by Orchesis for its interpretation of "Adam and Eve." Gloria Lueras won the trophy for the most outstanding supporting act, which was given for the first time this year.

Also one of the main attractions for the evening was the Spartans' act, "Frankie and Johnny."

The finale was one of the largest in the history of the school. All the participants gathered on stage for another round of applause.

Parent-Teacher Association

As before the Parents-Teachers Association held its annual membership drive in which over 1000 memberships were obtained. Because of this the students were favored with a special assembly in March. Under the direction of the President Mrs. C. W. Duebber, the P.T.A. of 1956-57 led a very good year.

The two most popular gals on campus, to whom the students will ever be indebted for the cure of their "aches and pains" are Dr. Helen Moran and Mrs. Jean Lewis.

Second Semester

The fall and spring semester Commissions of 1956-57 were headed by Walt Ross and Dennis Beatty, respectively. Under their leadership, new positions were added to the roster in order that all students would be represented on Commission. School spirit was at one of the highest levels ever seen on the RHS campus, especially during the campaigns for Student Body offices. The Commission added the sponsorship of a 6 school dinner to its regular responsibilities during the second semester before bowing out of the Pacific League at the end of this year.

During the school year two able presidents, Walt Ross (left) and Dennis Beatty (right), directed the Student Body in fine leadership.

Outstanding Student Service

The Outstanding Student Service Award is one of the most coveted awards given at Rosemead. In past years the award has been given to a few students who show outstanding service to the student body. Although only a few of the deserving students can be awarded OSS, we wish to thank those who received it for their many hours spent in service.

Education

Mr. Carl Fisher

Rosemead High's Business Education Department, headed by Mrs. Dolores Stevens, provides a wide variety of business subjects. Also, fine opportunities are made for students who just wish to further their education, and are not seeking to make a living in business.

Mrs. Dolores Stevens gives pointers on transcription to future business leaders.

Mrs. Helen Hill

The Business Department presents a fine curriculum for students interested in becoming business majors. Students who do go out into the business world are usually secure in knowing that they will obtain a fine position, for the department is very highly known by businessmen.

According to Aristotle, "The foundation of every state is the education of its youth." Part of that education concerns a fluent use of one's own tongue. We cannot underestimate the value of an effective knowledge and use of the English language. Students taking English learn to express their ideas clearly and concisely in writing and talking, and to have a wider scope of understanding of American literature and literature of many other foreign nations. Mrs. Beatrice Ewing heads the department.

The Music Department, headed by Mr. Clayton Cowan, gives Rosemead High students ample preparation and training in vocalizing and accompanying. Individual talents in the various phases of music are highly encouraged. Rosemead High's Choir is one of the outstanding musical groups in California. Excellent, too, are the Lyric Club and the Panther Band.

Math

Students on all levels of mathematics, from general mathematics to trigonometry, are given extensive and rigorous instruction in learning to develop ability and ease in using mathematical concepts and principles. Application is also made of mathematics to various trades and professions. Students of higher math probe the mysteries of logarithms, slide rules, transits, and imaginary numbers. Mrs. Helen Rutgers heads the Mathematics Department.

Dear Norma,

I sure am sorry the way things turned out at try-outs, but I know that it must be for the

Swan Song

How do you begin a Swan Song? What shall I say? Shall I tell of many hours spent by the staff drawing layouts, writing copy, marking pictures, shooting rubber bands and all other things that go into making a yearbook? Shall I tell of the many new changes found in this book, such as the informal arrangement, the new academics section, the change to hard cover and modern design by Bob Mackie, the Queens' section, an exclusive Variety Show cutup page, full page sports subdivisions, faculty index and this last blast by the editor.

Ah yes, our theme . . . Abstractions! In this abstract book of abstractions from our abstract school life is also abstracted the sweat, the bloodshot eyes, the pulled hair and the chewed fingernails of our devoted staff members, and also the undying patience of the staff of The Yearbook House, Monrovia, California, along with Mr. Wilbert and his photography staff. I would like to give thanks to Captain Fred Bawmeister who made it possible for the picture of San Gabriel Valley on Pages 6 and 7. For allowing us to take the beautiful picture "In Memoriam," on Pages 154 and 155, we thank the Rose Hills Memorial Park. Again we would like to thank Mr. Wilbert, Gary Nelson and Mr. Watson, the photographers, for the many hours they spent in taking the fabulous pictures that are found in this book. For their patience, for their work, for putting up with me, all I can say is "Thanks, to you, staff." Last but not least, thanks to you Mr. Williams (Hank, Willie, Hey you) for your inspiration and guidance for our "Abstractions of 1957."

Before Dick 45 - After Jimmy 10.

Norma -

Well, were going to be seniors. It seems funny to think that in another year we will be out of school. It's always so hard to say what you want to, and there is so much I want to say. Norma - I think you're a fabulous person. You have a flawless personality, that makes everyone like you - You have a lot of friends, and that along with other things makes you the swell person you are. Isn't it going to seem funny next year being seniors - Golly - it just doesn't right, does it? I know it will be our best year, and for you, too, because you'll be going with Jimmy. Norma - I think you and Jimmy make a faultless couple because you're both such swell (kids!) I know when you look back and read this you'll not remember all the things we've done together, but I hope you will remember some of the times. How about the time you and Jimmy and Tommie and me went to Long Beach and drove around. How about the time I came over and we called Jimmy, and we kept getting the wrong number, or when we went and saw Hoyt at the hospital. I've had a fabulous time together, and I hope will get to see each other again in the future ^{years} of our lives - Be good, I'll see you this summer so I don't have to get all gooey about good-bye.

Love You

One more year to go and we are this year has been really great, it has had its ups and downs - you know what I mean, but all in all everything has turned out ok and I hope that we will always be friends and that what is really important.

Best of Luck To
